

Crisis Management for Banks Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Banking Institute	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's volatile financial ecosystem, Crisis Management in Banking has become a mission-critical capability driven by rising cybersecurity threats, financial fraud, liquidity shocks, regulatory scrutiny, geopolitical risks, and digital disruptions. Banks operate in a highly interconnected environment where a single crisis whether operational, reputational, technological, or financial can escalate rapidly and impact stakeholders globally. Crisis Management for Banks Training Course equips banking professionals with robust crisis preparedness frameworks, real-time response strategies, business continuity planning (BCP), disaster recovery (DR), and resilience engineering aligned with international standards and regulatory expectations.

This intensive training program focuses on proactive risk identification, crisis simulation, incident response governance, communication strategies, and post-crisis recovery planning. Participants will gain hands-on insights into ESG-related crises, fintech disruptions, systemic risk events, and AI-driven threat detection, ensuring institutions can respond swiftly while maintaining trust and compliance. The course integrates real-world banking case studies, scenario analysis, and digital transformation strategies, making it highly practical, actionable, and aligned with Basel III, ISO 22301, and global best practices in enterprise risk management (ERM).
