

Crisis Media Management Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	General Training	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's hyper-connected digital landscape, Crisis Media Management has become a critical competency for organizations, governments, and brands facing rapid information escalation across social media and traditional news channels. A single negative post, viral video, or reputational incident can escalate into a full-scale brand crisis within minutes. Crisis Media Management Training Course equips participants with advanced skills in reputation management, media response strategy, crisis communication planning, and digital risk mitigation. It focuses on real-time decision-making frameworks that help organizations protect credibility, maintain stakeholder trust, and control narratives across platforms such as X (Twitter), Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, and online news ecosystems.

This program blends theory with real-world application, enabling learners to master crisis communication models, media engagement protocols, sentiment analysis, stakeholder communication strategies, and AI-driven social listening tools. Participants will learn how global brands handle PR disasters, misinformation outbreaks, corporate scandals, cybersecurity breaches, and leadership controversies. By the end of the course, learners will be able to design and execute a complete crisis media response plan, ensuring resilience, transparency, and strategic communication under pressure.
