Gender and Child Protection Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Gender Studies	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Gender and Child Protection is a critical, cross-cutting development priority that integrates gender equality, child safeguarding, human rights, social justice, and protection systems strengthening. In today's rapidly evolving global landscape, issues such as gender-based violence (GBV), child abuse, exploitation, trafficking, harmful cultural practices, and digital risks demand innovative, data-driven, and survivor-centered approaches. Gender and Child Protection Training Course equips participants with practical tools, policy frameworks, and evidence-based strategies to design and implement impactful gender-responsive and child protection programs.

With increasing emphasis on SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals), ESG frameworks, safeguarding compliance, and inclusive development, professionals must adopt intersectional, trauma-informed, and rights-based approaches. This training enhances competencies in risk assessment, case management, safeguarding policies, community engagement, and accountability mechanisms, ensuring that children and vulnerable populations are protected while promoting gender equity, resilience, and empowerment.
