

Gender and Communication Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Gender Studies	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Effective communication is at the heart of inclusive and equitable environments. Gender and Communication Training Course equips participants with the knowledge and skills to recognize and address gender biases, stereotypes, and inequalities in communication. Participants will explore strategies for fostering respectful dialogue, amplifying diverse voices, and creating an inclusive communication culture. By integrating gender-sensitive frameworks into professional and social contexts, learners will become advocates for equality and champions of constructive discourse.

This course emphasizes practical engagement, case studies, and real-world applications, enabling participants to translate theory into actionable communication strategies. It leverages interactive methodologies to enhance participants' abilities in gender-responsive messaging, inclusive storytelling, conflict resolution, and participatory communication. By the end of the program, learners will not only understand gender dynamics in communication but also implement tools to foster equity, empowerment, and collaboration across organizational and community settings.
