

Gender Equality in the Workplace Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Gender Equality in the Workplace Training Course is designed to move beyond traditional checklists, employing a gender lens to navigate the future of work an era defined by digital transformation, increased automation, and the rise of the contingent workforce. By addressing systemic barriers such as the "leaky pipeline" and unconscious bias, we empower organizations to foster an environment where psychological safety and inclusive leadership are the bedrock of innovation.

Achieving true parity requires a multi-faceted approach that dismantles historical gendered organizational structures. This course leverages data-driven approaches and evidence-based strategies to challenge the "ideal worker" standard and promote gender-sensitive policies. Participants will explore the intersection of intersectionality and professional identity, gaining the competencies needed to drive cultural transformation and ensure every talent, regardless of gender, has an equitable path to leadership representation and success.
