Course Introduction

Innovation Project Planning Training Course is designed to equip professionals with practical, future-ready skills to plan, structure, and deliver innovation-driven projects in fast-changing environments. The course emphasizes innovation strategy alignment, agile project planning, design thinking integration, value-driven roadmaps, stakeholder collaboration, and data-informed decision-making. Participants will gain hands-on exposure to modern innovation frameworks, project lifecycle management, digital collaboration tools, risk-based planning, and scalable execution models that support sustainable growth and competitive advantage.

This training focuses on transforming ideas into structured, fundable, and executable innovation projects. It integrates emerging trends such as agile innovation, lean experimentation, digital transformation, customer-centric planning, and cross-functional governance. Through real-world case studies and applied planning exercises, learners develop the ability to manage uncertainty, prioritize innovation portfolios, allocate resources efficiently, and measure innovation outcomes using performance metrics and business value indicators.
