Category	Public Sector Innovation	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today’s rapidly evolving business and organizational environments, effective leadership is crucial for guiding teams through uncertainty, transformation, and disruption. Leaders must develop adaptive strategies, emotional intelligence, and resilience while fostering innovation, collaboration, and trust. Leadership in Times of Change Training Course explores contemporary leadership frameworks, change management principles, and practical tools for leading high-performing teams through periods of organizational, technological, and market shifts. Participants gain insights into strategic decision-making, stakeholder engagement, and communication practices that drive results during volatile, uncertain, complex, and ambiguous (VUCA) environments.

The course equips participants with hands-on methods for assessing organizational readiness, managing resistance, and implementing transformational initiatives while maintaining employee engagement and morale. Through case studies, scenario-based exercises, and practical leadership simulations, learners strengthen critical skills such as situational leadership, adaptive thinking, conflict resolution, and culture shaping. By the end of the training, participants will be prepared to lead with confidence, inspire performance, and create sustainable change that aligns with organizational goals and vision.
