

PFM and the Public Sector HR Link Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Public Financial Management & Budgeting	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Public Financial Management (PFM) and Human Resource (HR) management are critical pillars of effective public sector governance. PFM and the Public Sector HR Link Training Course bridges the essential link between fiscal discipline, human capital management, budget execution, and workforce efficiency. Participants will explore how aligning PFM systems with HR frameworks enhances accountability, transparency, fiscal sustainability, and service delivery in the public sector. By integrating modern PFM practices with innovative HR strategies, institutions can optimize resource allocation, improve productivity, and strengthen institutional capacity.

This program equips participants with practical tools, trending strategies, and case studies that highlight the importance of linking PFM and HR for improved governance reform. Emphasis is placed on budgetary control, payroll management, performance-based financing, fiscal decentralization, and human resource planning. Participants will gain skills to enhance policy design, drive institutional reforms, and ensure effective utilization of public resources through sustainable HR and financial systems.
