Course Introduction

Training Course on Police Ethics, Accountability & Oversight is an advanced, research-based program designed to enhance ethical awareness, accountability practices, and oversight mechanisms in modern law enforcement. With increasing scrutiny on policing practices globally, this course aims to provide law enforcement professionals, policymakers, and justice advocates with the tools to ensure ethical conduct, transparency, and responsible policing.

Rooted in real-world case studies and global best practices, the program combines theory with practical applications to foster a culture of accountability. It emphasizes integrity, human rights, community trust, and the critical role of civilian oversight in democratic policing. Participants will gain insights into ethical decision-making, internal affairs, civilian review boards, and contemporary challenges in police conduct and reforms.
