Category	General Training	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Public-Private Partnerships require strong ethical leadership, transparency, accountability, integrity, and responsible governance to ensure that public resources and private-sector expertise deliver sustainable value. Public-Private Partnerships Ethics and Transparency Training Course provides practical knowledge and advanced approaches for identifying and managing ethical risks across the Public-Private Partnerships lifecycle, including project identification, feasibility assessment, procurement, contract negotiation, implementation, monitoring, and contract management. The course examines corruption prevention, conflict-of-interest management, disclosure requirements, anti-bribery controls, ethical procurement, stakeholder accountability, whistleblower protection, transparency mechanisms, and responsible decision-making within Public-Private Partnerships institutions.

The course also develops practical competencies for strengthening institutional integrity and public trust in Public-Private Partnerships programmes. Participants will explore international good practices, ethical frameworks, transparency standards, governance controls, risk-based compliance systems, and real-world global case studies. Emphasis is placed on emerging priorities such as ESG governance, digital transparency, beneficial ownership disclosure, open contracting, integrity due diligence, data-driven oversight, and anti-corruption compliance. By completing the course, participants will be better equipped to promote ethical conduct, strengthen accountability, mitigate integrity risks, and improve confidence in Public-Private Partnerships investments and public infrastructure programmes.
