Refugee & Displaced Populations: Financial Services Access Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Microfinance & Financial Inclusion	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Refugee and displaced populations face significant barriers when accessing financial services, including limited identification documentation, disrupted livelihoods, restricted mobility, and exclusion from formal banking systems. Strengthening financial inclusion for these populations is essential for economic resilience, social protection, humanitarian response efficiency, and long-term integration. This training provides a comprehensive understanding of inclusive finance strategies, digital financial ecosystems, risk-responsive product design, and regulatory frameworks that support high-risk and vulnerable groups. It integrates trending global approaches such as mobile money onboarding, digital IDs, microcredit access pathways, fintech partnerships, and humanitarian cash-transfer technologies.

Refugee & Displaced Populations: Financial Services Access Training Course equips participants with practical tools, operational frameworks, and field-tested models for designing, implementing, and scaling financial inclusion programs targeting refugees and displaced communities. Through evidence-based methodologies, case studies, and actionable insights, participants will learn how to build sustainable financial access systems, strengthen cross-sector coordination, drive livelihood development, and ensure compliance with financial integrity standards. The training emphasizes data-driven decision-making, inclusive product innovation, and the use of digital finance to unlock economic opportunities for displaced populations.
