Taxation & Development: Official Development Assistance (ODA) Context Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Taxation and Revenue	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

The landscape of global development financing has evolved significantly, placing an increased emphasis on Official Development Assistance (ODA) and its role in sustainable economic growth. Understanding the taxation frameworks that underpin ODA is essential for policymakers, tax administrators, and development practitioners to ensure effective resource mobilization, transparency, and accountability. Taxation & Development: Official Development Assistance (ODA) Context Training Course provides a comprehensive examination of the intersection between taxation and development assistance, equipping participants with cutting-edge insights into fiscal policy, compliance, and revenue optimization.

Participants will gain practical knowledge on leveraging taxation systems to enhance development outcomes, while critically analyzing the challenges and opportunities presented by ODA. Through a blend of theoretical frameworks, international case studies, and applied learning exercises, learners will develop the capacity to influence policy, strengthen institutional effectiveness, and ensure that tax revenues contribute to equitable and sustainable development goals. This course is designed to empower professionals with actionable strategies for integrating ODA considerations into national and regional fiscal policies.
