Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today’s complex humanitarian landscape, Leadership in Refugee Education Programs is pivotal to creating sustainable, inclusive, and impactful learning environments for displaced communities. Training Course on Leadership for Refugee Education Programs equips education leaders, NGO professionals, policy makers, and development practitioners with innovative leadership skills, strategic planning techniques, and community engagement tools. With the increasing global focus on refugee education, leadership must adapt to challenges like trauma-informed teaching, education in emergencies, policy advocacy, and resource mobilization, ensuring no learner is left behind.

Empowered leaders in refugee education drive change by promoting inclusive education policies, cross-sector collaboration, and scalable solutions for education in displacement settings. This course bridges theory with practice, integrating global best practices, real-world case studies, and the latest frameworks such as the Inter-agency Network for Education in Emergencies (INEE) standards and SDG 4 - Quality Education for All. Through experiential learning, participants will develop the competencies to lead, innovate, and advocate effectively for refugees’ right to education.
