Course Outline

Module 1: Foundations of Negotiation in Aviation

- Understanding the nature and scope of negotiation in the aviation industry.
- Defining key negotiation concepts: interests vs. positions, BATNA, ZOPA.
- Identifying common negotiation pitfalls in aviation.
- Exploring different negotiation styles and their effectiveness in aviation contexts.
- Case Study: The negotiation of new bilateral air service agreements between two nations.

Module 2: Strategic Preparation for Aviation Negotiations

- Conducting thorough research on counterparts, market conditions, and regulatory frameworks.
- Defining clear objectives, targets, and walk-away points.
- Developing comprehensive negotiation plans and agendas.
- Assembling and leveraging a high-performing negotiation team.
- Case Study: Preparing for a complex aircraft purchase negotiation with a major manufacturer.

Module 3: Communication and Active Listening

- Mastering verbal and non-verbal communication in high-pressure aviation environments.
- Techniques for active listening and empathetic understanding.
- Asking powerful questions to uncover underlying interests.
- Managing emotions and maintaining composure during difficult conversations.
- Case Study: An airline's internal negotiation with pilot unions regarding new contract terms following a critical incident.

Module 4: Principled Negotiation and Value Creation

- Applying the Harvard Negotiation Project's "Principled Negotiation" framework.
- Focusing on interests, not positions, to create mutual gains.
- Brainstorming creative options to expand the "pie" in aviation deals.
- Developing objective criteria for fair and sustainable agreements.
- Case Study: Collaborating with an airport authority to resolve a long-standing dispute over landing fees, seeking a win-win solution for both parties.

Module 5: Power, Influence, and Persuasion

- Understanding sources of power in aviation negotiations.
- Ethical techniques for influencing and persuading counterparts.
- Recognizing and counteracting manipulative tactics.
- Building rapport and trust for long-term relationships.
- Case Study: A smaller regional airline negotiating slots at a major international hub with a dominant legacy carrier.

Module 6: Cross-Cultural Negotiation in Global Aviation

- Navigating cultural differences in communication, decision-making, and negotiation styles.
- Adapting negotiation strategies to diverse international contexts.
- Understanding the impact of national culture on business etiquette.
- Building bridges across cultural divides for effective collaboration.
- Case Study: Negotiating an MRO contract with an overseas service provider from a culturally distinct background.

Module 7: Negotiating Commercial Aviation Contracts

- Key clauses and considerations in aircraft leasing and financing agreements.
- Strategies for negotiating favorable terms in airline procurement contracts (e.g., fuel, catering).
- Managing legal and regulatory complexities in contract negotiations.
- Risk assessment and mitigation in commercial agreements.
- Case Study: Renegotiating a long-term fuel supply contract with a major oil company amidst fluctuating market prices.

Module 8: Dispute Resolution and Conflict Management

- Identifying the root causes of conflict in aviation settings.
- Techniques for de-escalating tensions and fostering constructive dialogue.
- Exploring mediation, arbitration, and other dispute resolution mechanisms.
- Crafting settlement agreements that protect organizational interests.
- Case Study: Resolving a contentious dispute between an airline and a ground handling company over service level agreement (SLA) breaches.

Module 9: Crisis Negotiation in Aviation

- Principles of crisis communication and negotiation during emergencies (e.g., flight delays, security incidents).
- Managing public perception and media relations in crisis negotiations.
- Coordinating with multiple agencies and stakeholders under pressure.
- Maintaining composure and ethical decision-making in high-stress situations.
- Case Study: An airline's response to a significant flight disruption, negotiating passenger compensation and alternative travel arrangements.

Module 10: Advanced Negotiation Strategies

- The art of making and responding to concessions.
- Using anchors and re-anchors effectively.
- Strategies for dealing with difficult or aggressive negotiators.
- Negotiating with multiple parties and coalitions.
- Case Study: Negotiating the acquisition of a smaller airline, managing various shareholder interests and regulatory approvals.

Module 11: Team Negotiation Dynamics

- Optimizing internal team dynamics for effective external negotiations.
- Assigning roles and responsibilities within a negotiation team.
- Managing internal disagreements and building consensus.
- Debriefing and learning from negotiation outcomes.
- Case Study: A joint venture negotiation between two airlines forming a new cargo operation.

Module 12: Ethical Considerations in Aviation Negotiation

- Defining ethical boundaries and avoiding deceptive practices.
- Maintaining integrity and reputation in all dealings.
- Addressing conflicts of interest and ensuring transparency.
- The long-term impact of ethical vs. unethical negotiation.

- Case Study: An examination of a historical aviation industry negotiation where ethical lapses led to significant negative consequences.

Module 13: Post-Negotiation Management and Relationship Building

- Ensuring successful implementation of negotiated agreements.
- Monitoring compliance and addressing post-agreement issues.
- Strategies for nurturing long-term relationships with counterparts.
- Measuring negotiation effectiveness and continuous improvement.
- Case Study: A successful long-term partnership between an airline and an aircraft maintenance provider, built on trust and effective ongoing negotiation.

Module 14: Digital Tools and Analytics in Negotiation

- Leveraging data analytics for pre-negotiation intelligence.
- Using communication platforms for remote negotiations.
- Virtual meeting etiquette and best practices.
- Digital tools for documenting and tracking negotiation progress.
- Case Study: How a major airline used predictive analytics to inform its negotiation strategy for airport gate allocations.

Module 15: Personal Negotiation Skills Enhancement

- Self-assessment of individual negotiation strengths and weaknesses.
- Developing a personalized action plan for continuous improvement.
- Strategies for managing stress and building resilience.
- Mentoring and coaching for ongoing negotiation skill development.
- Case Study: A personal reflection on a challenging negotiation and the lessons learned for future interactions.
