

Training on Coaching and Mentoring Skills for Managers and Supervisors

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Development	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's fast-paced business environment, organizations that invest in coaching and mentoring create high-performing teams, improve employee engagement, and develop future leaders. Managers and supervisors play a crucial role in shaping their teams' success, and mastering coaching and mentoring skills is essential for driving professional growth, improving workplace performance, and fostering a culture of continuous learning. This training, "Coaching and Mentoring Skills for Managers and Supervisors," is designed to equip leaders with the knowledge, tools, and techniques needed to support and develop their teams effectively.

Effective coaching and mentoring go beyond simply delegating tasks or providing feedback. It involves active listening, constructive communication, goal setting, and personalized development strategies. When managers adopt a coaching mindset, they empower employees to take initiative, build confidence, and maximize their potential. Similarly, structured mentoring programs create a supportive environment where experienced leaders guide, inspire, and transfer critical skills to less experienced employees.

This course will provide practical frameworks, real-world case studies, and hands-on exercises to help participants master the art of coaching and mentoring in diverse workplace settings. Participants will learn how to set clear expectations, deliver effective feedback, handle performance challenges, and create long-term development plans that align with both individual and organizational goals.
